Weather Closing – Additional Information

Message:

On-campus classes and operations are suspended today, 2/25/22.

Normal operations will resume tomorrow, 2/26/22 at 7 a.m.

Designated essential personnel are required to report at their regularly scheduled time, or as arranged with their supervisor. If you have questions about your work status, please contact your immediate supervisor.

Faculty may choose to teach remotely, but must inform their students as soon as possible if class will be held remotely.

Some prescheduled meetings may still be held remotely. Monitor email for updates from organizers.
