

1. The state governors met with their respective legislatures convening in the capitol city.

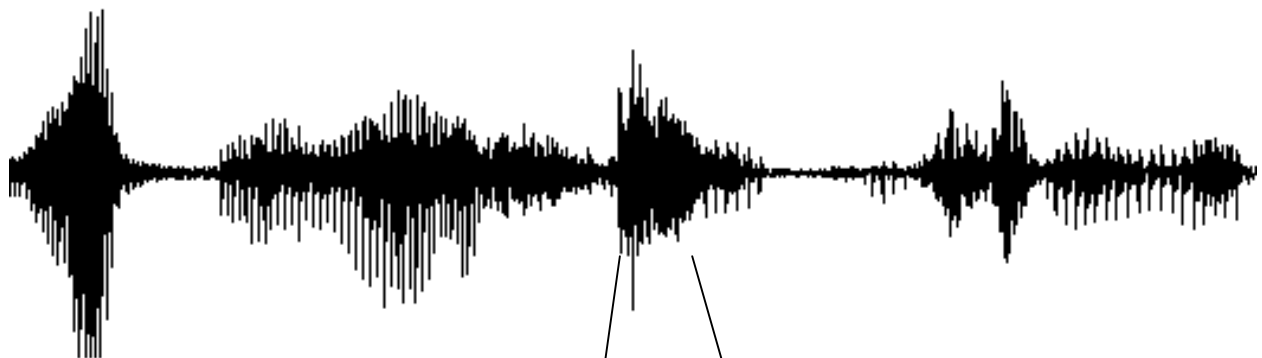

le                    gis                    < cough >                    a                    ture                    s

2. The mummy discovered in the Egyptian tomb was surrounded by treasure.

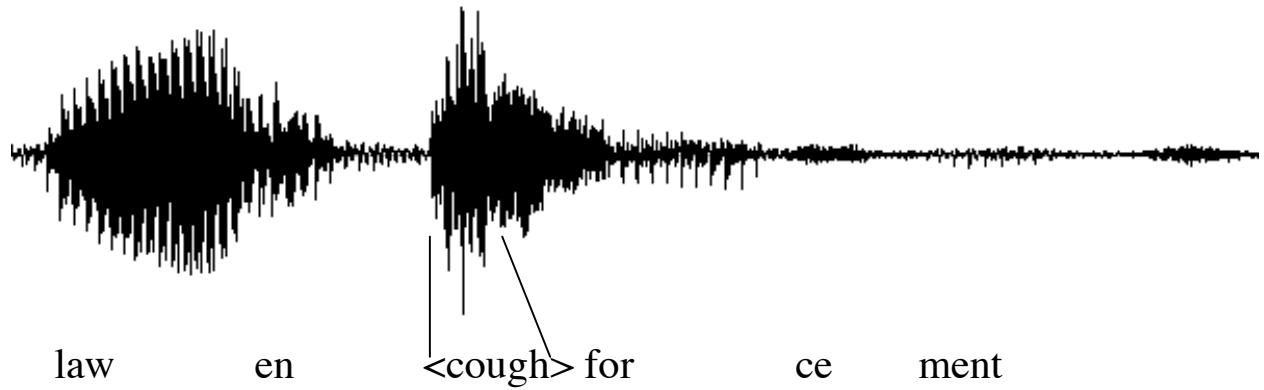

the Eg y                    p                    sh                    un                    <cough>t                    oo                    m

3. The new recreational facility will provide many after-school activities.

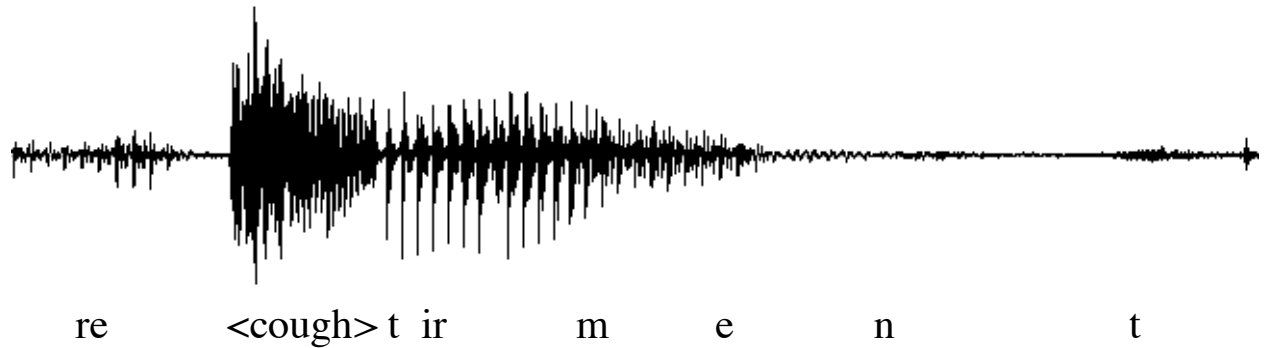

re                    cre                    a                    shun                    <cough> al                    fa                    cil                    I

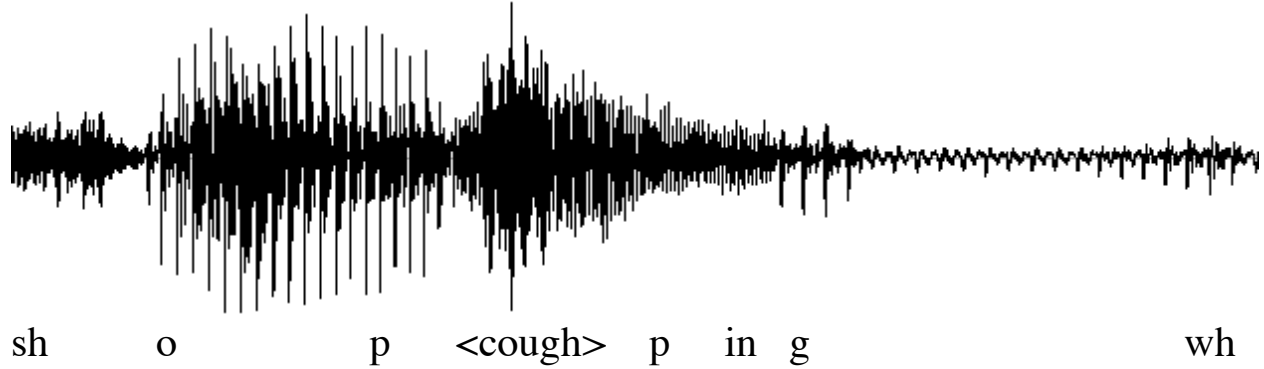

4. The present location of the escaped convict remains a mystery to law enforcement.

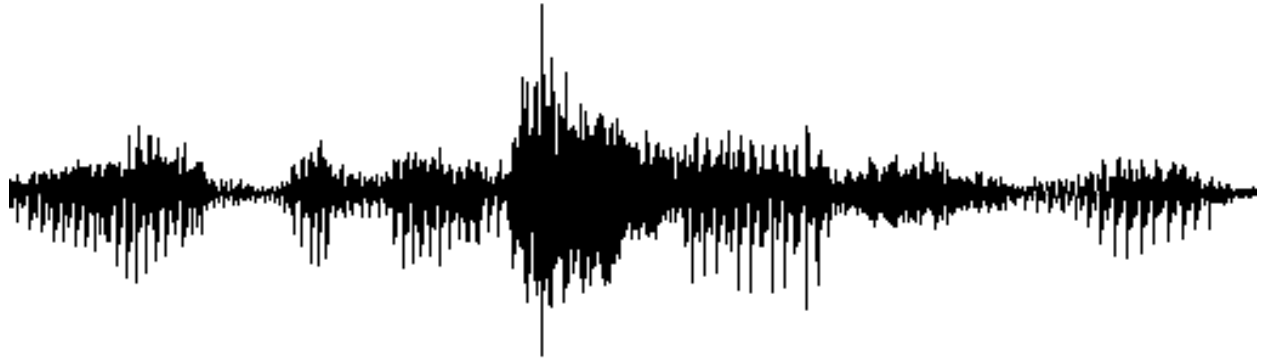

5. Investing wisely today can lead to a financially secure retirement.

6. I promise to take you shopping when the roads clear up.

7. The book focuses on the organizational challenges involved in completing these massive jobs.

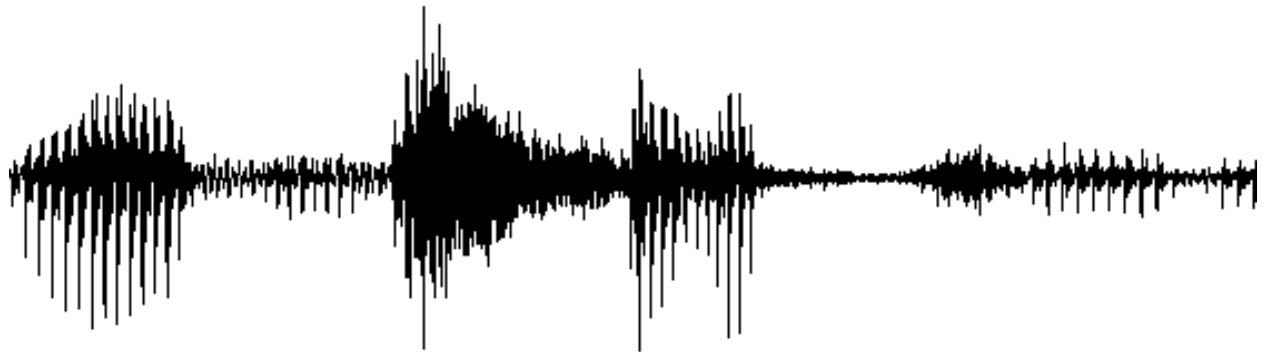

or gan iz <cough> a sh unul

8. One can only speculate on the biological diversity of extraterrestrial life.

d i v e r <cough> si ty

9. Many fine watches are manufactured in Switzerland.

man u <cough> fact u r di n