Teaching Assistant at the Maru-A-Pula School, Gaborone, Botswana

Maru-A-Pula (MaP) is an independent co-educational secondary school located in Gaborone, Botswana. The school has teaching assistant (TA) opportunities for enthusiastic, good-humored, outgoing, flexible and highly skilled undergraduates who are willing to commit to 8 weeks of work in June and July 2013. Students who can offer some of the following are in particular need:

- Offer coaching in SAT prep and help students with college applications
- Teach and/or tutor students in Math
- Work with students on their writing skills and serve as editor of our school newsletter
- Help supervise Science practical’s
- Work with our music students on a variety of instruments
- Help coach sports
- Guide and encourage students in the visual arts, particularly in painting and graphics

MaP provides accommodation and food throughout the time at MaP. TA’s are expected to model appropriate behavior at all times and demonstrate a genuine desire to contribute to the life of the school. For more information about applying for a TA position, contact: br@maruapula.org
