1. Representatives from the Working Group on Inclusive and Accessible Teaching and Learning visited CEPP. Representatives shared the draft of Guiding Principles for high quality teaching and learning with the intent of garnering feedback from CEPP. The principles, at this point, are not binding, nor are they intended to be a motion. Rather, the principles are intended as a guide for shared values, and a foundation for moving forward with the Working Group's charge. There will be a Committee of the Whole discussion in November on the principles.
2. CEPP Chair has drafted an email about the change to the QSet and asked CEPP members for feedback. CEPP chair plans to hold a meeting for the broader community to enable faculty to ask questions.
3. CEPP member asked when we would take up the variety of practices that exist around the administration of teaching evaluations. CEPP Chair affirmed we would discuss next week.
