1. CEPP reviewed and approved minutes from December 7.
2. Re: FHB syllabus requirement, CC and CAFR will discuss at their meetings and report back. Additional anecdotal feedback:
 - a. General support seemed apparent at C/PD meeting
 - b. Might we work with CLTL for trainings in syllabus best practices?
 - c. Some concern that Thanksgiving remote mandate could be a hardship for NTT faculty who do not have Skidmore issued computers
3. Gen Ed Curriculum webpage revamp. Communications and Marketing provided specific questions for CEPP to review concerning the new Gen Ed webpage. CEPP discussed links and/or additional information that could be added into the new Gen Ed Webpage prototype, including number of required credits; links to catalog for descriptions; and accordion menus for each of the Gen Ed area requirements. CEPP also discussed that the historical information would be well-archived on the CEPP website ("Documents and Links"). CEPP reviewed "Quick Links" on current Gen Ed webpage; CEPP suggests removing all "Quick Links" and archive documents (including FAQs) on the CEPP website ("Documents and Links").
 - a. In reviewing the CEPP website, CEPP decided that the CEPP page link to "The Plan for Skidmore" should be removed.
4. Next week, Dave DeConno will join the CEPP meeting to discuss how a 5 and 7 year academic calendar planning cycle works. We will also consider the Thanksgiving break remote proposal.
5. Thanksgiving Schedule Survey—about 25 departments completed the survey. Data not yet ready to share.
6. CEPP discussed ChatGPT and the parameters of academic integrity violations. CEPP will continue to monitor developments.
