Library 213

Attendees: Lisa Jackson-Schebetta, Emilka Jansen, Nick Junkerman, Michael Orr, Mahesh Shankar, Kelly Sheppard, Bob Turner, Leigh Wilton,

Absent: Adrian Bautista

Scribe: Nick Junkerman

Meeting started at 2:31pm

1. Minutes from previous meeting reviewed and approved.
2. Chair updated the committee on the issue of triple counting of courses toward general ed requirements. With the concurrence of curriculum committee, the practice will be discontinued, and the affected faculty will be notified by the registrar.
3. Committee discussed academic calendar for next year, with substantial discussion of the possibility of remote learning on the Monday and Tuesday before Thanksgiving. Concerns were aired both for and against the idea on DEI grounds. The committee also discussed differential impacts across departments.
4. The calendars for AYs 24-25, 25-26, 26-27 were provisionally approved, pending Dean Bautista's approval.
5. Committee discussed the draft Power Point slides for a training entitled "A Student's Guide to Providing Feedback on Teaching and Learning." Discussion focused on the ordering of the slides, and the proper placement of language relating to bias.
6. Chair proposed drafting a plan for CEPP's next 2-3 years.

Meeting concluded at 3:31pm.
