3. Planning for AY 2022-2023 CEPP agenda
   a. Discussed NACCC survey results and how to proceed with CEPP work in the context of those results. This included the question of what that means for how the inclusivity subcommittee is constituted, and what the broader goals of such a subcommittee should be.
   b. Discussed HHMI feedback and best ways to respond and address them in such a subcommittee. Committee also discussed the proposed timeline for this inclusivity work, and concern that acting on HHMI feedback might extend the timeline for too long.
   c. Committee also discussed the role of ATC/PC and expectations they might set regarding candidates statements that reflect on their efforts with regard to inclusivity in the classroom.
   d. Discussed broader question of who ought to be part of this conversation, both in terms of goals as well as implementation.
   e. CEPP members spent the remainder of the meeting brainstorming potential matters to address in the following academic year.
