

AM 332: Global Perspectives of the United States

Daniel M. Nathan | MW 2:30-3:50 | Tisch Learning Center 304

Course Description:

Assesses and puts in historical context global perspectives on and representations of the U.S., its citizens and culture. Employing an interdisciplinary methodology, student will consider how the U.S. appeared to Europeans in the 18th century and how others since then have made sense of this country, with an emphasis on the 20th century and the post-9/11 cultural moment. Students will examine themes including the preferred national narrative of the U.S. as a place of freedom, opportunity, democracy, and multicultural pluralism; and different forms of anti-Americanism. (Designated a Cultural Diversity course.)
