Videorecording or Film

If you cite a videorecording or film in your text, you must include that source in your References Cited list.

General Format

References Cited:

Last Name, First Name and Initial(s) of director or photographer [followed by first name, initial(s), and last name of other contributor(s), if any].
Year. Title of videorecording [videorecording, length of time of the recording]. Place of Distributor: Distributor.

In-Text:

(Director's Last Name Year)

Examples

References Cited:

Marshall, John K.
1971 Bitter Melons [videorecording, 30 min.]. Watertown, MA: Documentary Education Resources.

Uys, Jamie

Note:
1. Use the original release date rather than the date of the videocassette.
2. After the title, videorecording and length of time of the film are put in brackets.
3. Nothing else is italicized or underlined.

In-Text:

(Marshall 1971) or (Uys 1984).