

Annual Report, External Master's Program Committee

During 2002-2003, the External Master's Program Committee met a total of nine times.

Eleven students personally presented their academic programs to the Committee for review and all received approval for their individual plans. The programs approved by the Committee included Adolescent Antisocial Behavior, American Studies: Turn of the Century New England, Adirondack History, Organizational Studies, Writing the Self: Literary Identity as Process, and Conversations in American Democracy.

The Committee also discussed how the College's redefinition of "Liberal Arts Credit" impacts the Master's Program.

Finally, the Committee recommended that six students be awarded the Master of Arts degree.
