

Tenure-track Assistant Professor (Organic Chemistry).

Duties include teach introductory and upper-level courses, teach an interdisciplinary first-year seminar, and/or a STEM power & justice course; developing an undergraduate research program emphasizing synthetic chemistry; advise and mentor students; and participate in departmental and college service. All qualified candidates possess a minimum of a Ph.D. degree or its foreign equivalent in chemistry (e.g., specialization in organic chemistry, organometallic chemistry, or polymer chemistry) or a related field (e.g., chemical biology, medicinal chemistry, or materials science) with the expertise to teach organic chemistry is required. Six months Post-doctoral research/teaching experience or training in teaching preferred. Position is F/T, M-F.

Concerned applicants for this position should submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, teaching statement writing sample and list of 3 references to the following Skidmore College department responsible for placing this position:

Chemistry Department, Skidmore College, 815 N. Broadway, Saratoga Springs, NY 12866 Attn: Search Committee (Organic Chemistry).