

Skidmore College
Latin American & Latinx Studies Program presents:

CULTURAL ECOLOGIES OF THE FRANCOPHONE CARIBBEAN

FROM OUR NARRATIVES DISRUPTED: VOICES OF THE BLACK ATLANTIC SERIES!

Thursday, March 4 12-1:30PM

Moderated by Professor Aurélie Matheron (World Languages and Literatures)

Dr. Malcom Ferdinand

An environmental engineer from University College London and doctor in philosophy from Université Paris Diderot. He will be presenting on Decolonial Ecologies.

Dr. Mamyrah Dougé Prosper

A Visiting Assistant Professor of Africana Studies at Davidson College. She will be presenting on the Development in Occupied Haiti.

For more information and Zoom link visit:
https://www.skidmore.edu/latin_american/events/