

SUMMER AT SKIDMORE RESIDENTIAL POLICIES AND AGREEMENT

RESIDENCE HALLS AND APARTMENTS INFORMATION AND POLICIES

1. The student agrees to act responsibly in the use and care of the residence hall, apartment, common facilities, and College property, and to respect the rights of others within these areas. Inconsiderate behavior, including excessive noise or other residential life violations, will be subject to review by the Office of the Dean of Special Programs. Conduct that endangers the safety of property or health and safety of others is not permitted and will not be tolerated. The propping of outside entrance doors is prohibited.
2. The student is not guaranteed a specific room. The College reserves the right to relocate students should the need arise or conditions warrant. Space may not be sold, loaned, or sublet. The student does not have the right to use his/her room or apartment for any commercial purpose or profit whatsoever.
3. The student's room will be inspected for damage (the painting of rooms is prohibited) before the student moves in, before the student moves out, and, if necessary, during the session. The student will be billed for any damage incurred while the student was in residence. Repairs of damage to common areas in residence halls and apartments are billed to residents of the respective residence hall, floor, suite, or apartment involved, unless the person or persons responsible can be identified and charged accordingly. The student agrees to pay his/her proportionate share of all such sums whether or not he/she caused the damage in question. Residential damages, (including telecommunications) should be reported to the summer registration desk.
4. The student, when/where control is possible, has the responsibility to assist the college in the recycling of trash and the conservation of energy, to turn off lights when they are not in use, to keep windows closed while heat or air conditioning units are operating, etc.
5. The College affirms the right of the student to privacy, but the College has a legal right and obligation to ensure the safety of its residents and their property from criminal acts, to protect the College's property, and to prevent the use of College buildings for criminal acts or for illegal purposes. Therefore, the College reserves the right to enter student rooms/apartments without notice and unoccupied by student.
6. Guests are not permitted to stay overnight in the residence halls or apartments.
7. The College agrees to provide janitorial and housekeeping services for all lounges, corridors, stairways and bathrooms, except in apartments where residents are responsible for cleaning during their stay. The student is responsible for cleanliness of his/her own room and agrees to take good care of his/her room.

8. Motorbikes and motorcycles are not permitted in the residence halls or apartments. Bicycles must be kept in rooms designated for that purpose or in the student's room. Bicycles may not be kept in hallways, entryways, stairwells, or the common areas of the residence halls or apartments.
9. In instances where electrical outlets are required in addition to those fixed structural outlets within the space the following definition of an extension cord is acceptable to the College. The extension cord must be a device recognized by a nationally recognized independent testing laboratory such as U.L. and be generically referred to as a "temporary power tap". This tap should have no more than six outlets, no less than #14 supply cord and contain an independent circuit breaker of no greater capacity than 15 amps.
10. Halogen lamps, partitions, room dividers, lofts are prohibited. Furthermore, furniture, under no circumstances, should unnecessarily restrict free and easy movement within the room. Window air-conditioning units are strictly prohibited.
